

Children (Scotland) Act 1995.

BASIC DRAFT SCOTTISH ORDER:

1. The parties shall communicate regarding their child/children [name and date of birth] via OurFamilyWizard. The parties will, within two weeks of the date hereof, enrol in the programme OurFamilyWizard. The parties shall thereafter conduct all communications regarding child arrangements and other matters relating to the child/children using the OurFamilyWizard platform via the app or web browser [except in an emergency].

OPTIONS:

(a) The parties shall arrange the dates for the operation of contact in accordance with the terms of [paragraph(s) ... of this interlocutor by [Person A] selecting contact dates on the said "OurFamilyWizard" programme/ application at least six months in advance and enter those dates on the calendar feature of that programme / application. Parties will then use that calendar feature to arrange any variations to those dates¹.

(b) The Parties shall provide consent to their solicitor [or other relevant professional] to view their activity on the platform via a professional account

2. Each party will be responsible for paying their own subscription cost unless they qualify for a free account through the OurFamilyWizard financial hardship fund.

¹ Envisages the court making an order which doesn't identify specific dates but must be agreed between parties e.g. one half of school holidays.
